House Okays Bill For 35,000 Units In Public Housing

Bill Sponsored by Rep. Widnall Also Provides for Other Housing Programs to Get New Deadline

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today passed an omnibus housing bill calling for 35,000 public housing units for two years.

Primary Vote Estimated At 625,000

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Missouri's Aug. 7 primary vote total may drop as low as 625,000—less than a fourth of the eligible voters.

That estimate came today from Will Davis, chief clerk in the secretary of state's office. Of the total, he predicted 350,000 to 400,000 would vote in the Democratic primary and the rest would take Republican ballots.

Davis based his guess on widespread reports of voter apathy, small turnouts at political meetings over the state and few hot local and state contests of the kind to bring out a big vote.

Four years ago, 982,000 voted in the governorship races and 954,000 cast ballots in the two parties for United States senator.

This time Davis puts the number of eligible voters at around 2,850,000—including about 1,100,000 in places where registration is required.

Two years ago, in the off-year balloting for state auditor, the only statewide race on the ticket, the vote total was just shy of 521,000.

Davis said the two major offices on the Democratic ticket this time are shoe-ins for the favorites.

Sen. Thomas C. Hennings Jr. of St. Louis now has no opposition for renomination with the announced withdrawal of Thomas J. Gavin of Kansas City.

And for the governorship, Lt. Gov. James T. Blair Jr. is regarded as far out in front of his two rivals, Charles A. Lee of Webster Groves and Roy E. Glidewell of Salem.

On the Republican side, Herbert Douglas of Neosho and Albert E. Schoenbeck of St. Louis are in a hot contest for the nomination for U. S. senator, with Douglas reported having the edge outside and Schoenbeck in St. Louis. Other candidates have not made statewide campaigns.

The governorship race pits Lon Hocker, Clayton attorney, against Joseph M. Whealen, St. Louis feed company executive. Hocker is reported to have the bulk of organization support but Whealen has been slugging it out in his campaign speeches.

Foreign Students Arrive in Sedalia

Foreign students from the countries of Japan and New Zealand were to arrive in Sedalia at approximately 4 p. m. Wednesday afternoon for an overnight stay here. They were to be treated, when they arrived, at the home of Phillip McLaughlin on South Grand to ice cream and given a brief time to rest.

Wednesday evening at 6:30 they are to attend a banquet in their honor at the Bothwell Hotel and later in the evening will either go back to their places of stay, go to a movie at the Fox Theatre or go swimming in the Country Club swimming pool.

Might Go Up Again

The recent rainy spell gave the old water hill a break, but the brownish tinge to some lawns indicate it might go up again.

Generally fair and a little warmer tonight and Thursday; low tonight 72; high Thursday 95.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 74, 92 at 1 p. m. and 93 at 2 p. m. Low Tuesday night 68.

The temperature one year ago today, high 96, low 69; two years ago, high 91, low 73; .33 inch of rain; three years ago, high 97, low 71.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks 54.2, unchanged.

BRIEF HANDSHAKE—Presidential Assistant Harold Stassen, left, received a brief handshake from Pres. Eisenhower as the latter arrived back in Washington, D. C., from Panama. Ike returned to a GOP furor over Stassen's announcement for Massachusetts Gov. Christian Herter to replace Vice President Nixon on the GOP slate. In center is Dr. Arthur F. Burns, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors. (NEA Telephoto)

Re-elect Carl Heldt President Youth Group

AMES, Iowa (AP)—Carl Heldt of Evansville, Ind., was re-elected today as president of the International Walther League, the youth organization of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

The 2,400 delegates last night went for "the world's largest hayrack ride." The Rev. Norman Hanneman, Liddersdale, Iowa, arranged for 123 tractor-drawn hayracks on which the delegates took a two hour jaunt.

Tells Court Of McKeon's Vodka Bottle

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C. (AP)—A bespectacled, blushing Marine guard said today S. Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon tried to hide a vodka bottle after the death march of Platoon 71.

In a voice cracking with nervousness, Pfc. Fred A. McGruder told the McKeon court-martial the vodka bottle was recovered from McKeon's toilet bowl.

McKeon is the 31-year-old drill instructor from Worcester, Mass., who led a 74-man recruit platoon on a night disciplinary march into a tidal marsh where six drowned. McKeon is charged with involuntary manslaughter, oppression of recruits and drinking on duty. There is no charge that when he led the platoon on the fatal march he was drunk.

There has been previous testimony that McKeon had been drinking vodka the morning of April 8, a Sunday, and that "he raised a bottle to his lips" just before setting out on the hike.

McGruder was followed to the stand by Cpl. Arnold J. Lyons, 21, of Pittsburgh, Pa. Lyons said he was the corporal who retrieved the bottle from "behind the commode."

He reported overhearing McKeon saying plaintively, "What can you say when two of your men have been eaten up" as he sat shivering in his room after the fatal march.

Lyons was the twentieth survivor of the march "to teach them discipline" to testify. Earlier, a slender, Argentine-born survivor of Platoon 71's death march said his buddies entered the waters that night "making funny things."

Pvt. Hector Osvaldo Serantes of New York City and Buenos Aires testified McKeon was "one of the finest sergeants on this island."

By the time the parade of witnesses resumed, the main argument for the defense had become clear: If the Marine recruits had followed where McKeon led there would have been no deaths.

Scared and nervous survivors of the ill-fated Platoon 71, mostly youngsters in their teens, testified yesterday.

Bandit Robs Kroger Store Late Tuesday

Uses Woman Patron As Shield During Holdup, Then Flees

A lone, unmasked bandit walked into Kroger's on West Broadway about 8 p. m. Tuesday night, held up S. Sgt. Allen Asselmeier, 26, at the No. 2 register, and using Mrs. Forrest Benner, 909 South Quincy, as a shield, obtained well over $100 in bills.

Mr. and Mrs. Benner were in the aisle checking their groceries to Asselmeier when the man dressed in a grey suit, wearing a red sport shirt, grey or tan hat and brown shoes, walked in the front door. He hesitated a moment, looked around, then moved into the aisle.

He got behind Mrs. Benner and placed his arm around her shoulder and moved her up toward Asselmeier. He held a pistol in his hand and ordered Asselmeier to hand over the money in the cash register.

"Mrs. Benner said she said 'give it to him.'"

But as the man placed his arm around Mrs. Benner's shoulder and moved her up toward Asselmeier, he held a pistol in his hand and ordered Asselmeier to hand over the money in the cash register.

After he had been handed all the currency of $20, $10, $5, and $1 bills, he pushed Mrs. Benner forward and said, "Come with me."

Mrs. Benner told a reporter, "I wasn't about to go with him. I jerked away from him as he started out the door."

The man had backed his car into a parking place on the west side of the grocery and had the motor running, ready to make a hurried getaway. After he got outside, a customer reported he didn't get the gun put away until he was almost to his car. He shoved it in his belt, got into his car and sped away.

Asselmeier ran out shouting "Get his license, get his license" and ran almost to Limit still yelling out. Several different license numbers were turned in to the police and all are being checked by the State Highway Patrol on request of Chief of Police Edgar Neighbors.

Asselmeier, who is stationed at the Whiteman AFB in the 340th Field Maintenance and works extra at the Kroger store, said, "I recognized Mrs. Benner, and when the man walked up I first thought it was a joke. I tried to kinda stall in handing it to him hoping Charley (Charles Grace, one of the clerks) would see what was happening, but he didn't. As soon as the bandit went out the door, I ran out and yelled for somebody to get the license, that it was a holdup."

Benner ran out to his car and started down the highway to follow (Please turn to page 4, column 7)

Negotiators Move Back Into Closed Session

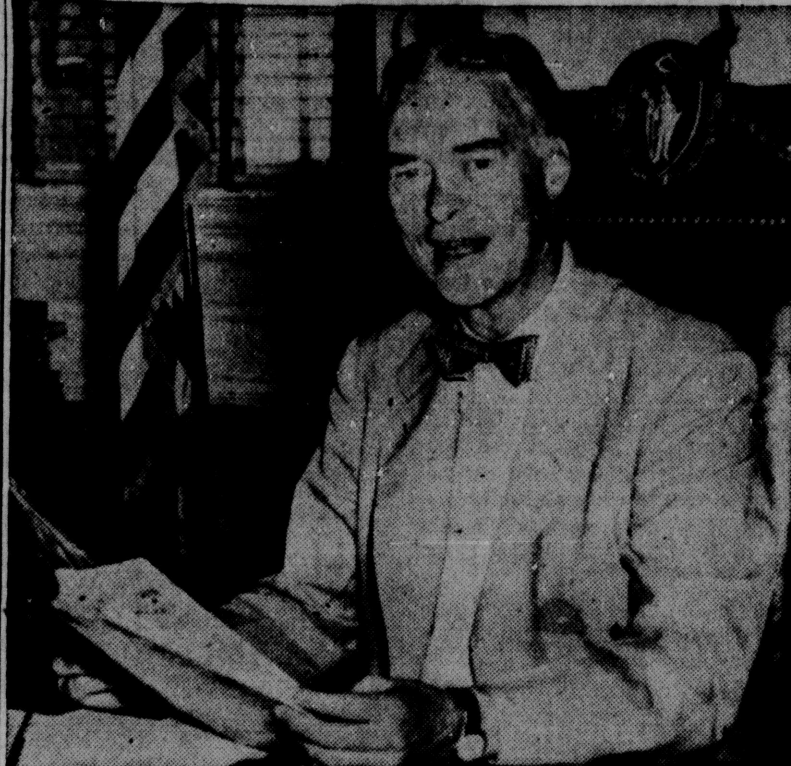

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel and union negotiators went back into a closed door session today and union leader David J. McDonald said "we are continuing to make progress" toward settlement of the 25-day-old steel strike.

Neither McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, nor the steel industry's chief negotiator, John A. Stephens, vice president of U. S. Steel, would comment on reports that a settlement is imminent.

Carnegie Hall Sells

NEW YORK (AP)—Carnegie Hall, a musical landmark in midtown Manhattan, has been sold to the tune of about five million dollars.

The Glickman Corp., a big real estate firm, announced its purchase of the 65-year-old concert hall.

STILL ISN'T A CANDIDATE—Gov. Christian A. Herter (R) of Massachusetts at his desk in State House at a news conference Tuesday said he still isn't a candidate for vice presidential nomination despite Harold E. Stassen's announced support of him. However, Herter reiterated his willingness to "do anything the President asked me to do." (AP Wirephoto)

Companies Apply for Routes--

Eleven Midwest States Give CAB Their Air Service Needs

OMAHA (AP)—Cities and towns from 11 Midwest states had their air services needs before the Civil Aeronautics Board today.

The first phase of the CAB's hearing on the requests ended yesterday after a week of testimony.

Civic parties presented their needs to examiner Curtis Henderson, with the four air lines involved to submit their proposals at a Washington session starting Sept. 18.

Witnesses came to the Omaha hearing from the edge of the Rocky Mountains to Chicago, and from the Canadian border to Kansas City and St. Louis.

Last heard were industrial and agricultural Iowa and Missouri. St. Louis emphasized the "underdevelopment" of air traffic there. Lee K. Mathews, transportation commissioner, said his city's rank as an air traffic generating center "is lagging behind competitive metropolitan areas."

Kansas City said it could not serve its trade community with the "far from adequate" local air service available. There is no local service at all to many points in most of the states involved in the current hearing, spokesmen said.

Companies applying for routes in the "seven-state" case are Frontier Airlines, Inc.; North Central Airlines; Ozark Air Line and Central Airlines.

Frontier operates from Montana and North Dakota to Arizona and New Mexico. Its application is for authority to establish a network in North Dakota, Minnesota, South Dakota and Nebraska. There would be spur lines to Kansas, Wyoming and Colorado.

North Central's present limit is on a line running from Chicago to Minneapolis to Grand Forks, N. D. It would schedule service in North and South Dakota, Nebraska with loops to Denver and Topeka, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Ozark wants to extend its service northward to include a loop through Nebraska into Wyoming through Denver, and lines into Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri, with extensions into Nebraska, South Dakota, Milwaukee and Chicago.

Highway Commission Spends $72,313,115

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—During the fiscal year ended June 30, the State Highway Commission spent or contracted for a total of $72,413,115 in highway improvements, involving 5,131 miles of roadway.

The commission said today that brings expenditures for the first four years of Missouri's 10-year highway program to $240,027,510 used for improvements on 13,686 miles of highway.

Says Hall Tries To Block Choice Of Running Mate

Stassen Takes Swing at Chairman Of GOP in Letter to Byrnes, One of 20 Who Asked Him to Quit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Harold E. Stassen, counterpunching against a demand that he quit his White House job for trying to bump Vice President Nixon off the Republican ticket, accused GOP Chairman Leonard Hall today of trying to "foreclose the choice" of a running mate for President Eisenhower.

Stassen, presidential disarmament aide, took his swing at Hall in a letter to Rep. Byrnes (R-Wis.), one of 20 congressmen who sent Stassen a get-out message after he proposed Monday that Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts supplant Nixon in the No. 2 place.

The letter never did mention the proposal that Stassen step out but thanked Byrnes for a "forthright message" and said:

"My action would not have been necessary if the national chairman (Hall) had not endeavored to foreclose the choice of the delegates (to the GOP national convention) before they met, contrary to Republican tradition and wise practice."

In the face of opposition from practically every major party figure who had anything to say in public, Stassen kept fighting in the letter and in a television broadcast.

In the TV interview he denied he had been left "holding the bag" and strongly implied the idea that Eisenhower's personal view on the issue is yet to be reported in full.

That was in the face of last night's announcement by Hall that Herter himself had agreed to make the nominating speech for Nixon at the San Francisco convention. Hall coupled that with a reiteration that he is sure the ticket will be Eisenhower and Nixon.

The letter to Byrnes was given out almost simultaneously with the release in Boston of a statement by Herter confirming that the Massachusetts governor will offer Nixon's name at the convention.

Will Keep Operating Hubbard High School; Gooch Acting Head

The Sedalia board of education has assigned C. H. Gooch as acting principal of Hubbard School for the coming school year, replacing Beverly Foster who was notified last week that he is dismissed as of Aug. 1 for what the board termed "incompetency and neglect of duties."

Assisting Gooch will be Harry E. Browder and Mrs. Dorothy Kitchen. All three are presently on the faculty at Hubbard School. Browder will assist with the high school and Mrs. Kitchen with the grade school operations.

Hubbard High School will continue to be operated as long as enrollment justifies it, according to William F. Brown, president of the board of education. He said that the board feels that the present enrollment, about 90, justifies running the high school throughout the coming year.

"In my opinion," he added, "it will continue to operate for many years."

Piles Formal Charges High Against Hodge

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Formal charges naming deposed State Auditor Orville E. Hodge were piled high today as prosecutors pressed a "colossal" list of grievances against him.

The exact number of counts on which he has been named because of a million-dollar shortage in his office was 330. More may follow.

A Sangamon County grand jury yesterday returned 46 separate indictments against Hodge, once a big man in the Republican state administration. Each indictment, in turn, carried six counts. Three were for embezzlement, each with a 1 to 15 year prison sentence possible. Two were for forgery which carries a 1 to 20 year term, on conviction, and one was for confidence game, which carries a 1 to 10 year sentence.

Hustle and Bustle of City Slows to Walk in Summer

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (U)—In the good old summertime New York City becomes the biggest country town in America.

It is now not only a great place to visit—it's a swell place to live in.

For Gotham, unlike bears, which hibernate in winter does its hibernating during the warm months.

Life slows to a dog trot and finally a lazy walk. All the two-and-three ulcer men, the nervous folk who live on pep pills, have fled to beach and mountain, leaving the city to those who love it for more reasons than the mere fact they make a living in it.

All the usual social bars are down. No velvet rope halls you in the night clubs. The headwaiter greets you as a human being instead of a sheep it is his distasteful duty to shear of his fleece.

The streets and subways are less crowded. You no longer have to write an indignant letter to the mayor in order to get a cab. Most of the Broadway theaters have seats for sale, and you don't have to go to your banker and float a loan to buy a ticket.

If you go through a revolving door, nobody gets in behind you and tries to come out ahead of you.

Pigeons gossip at your feet, move out of the way unburiedly, and waddle along after you, hoping for a handout.

The stores are full of wonderful bargains. Luggage is 50 per cent off, sport shirts are marked down 25 per cent.

Everybody is relaxed and easy-going. The big town has time for all the little niceties that make living in a small town so pleasant.

You can get a haircut without standing in line. The cop on the beat gives you a nod or a cherry "Hello." Old ladies lean out of tenement windows, leaning on fat arms that look like white pillows, and talk comfortably.

Even in traffic jams the truck drivers cuss out the "civilian" drivers in a way that show they don't really have their heart in it.

There is a half-holiday atmosphere in the offices. The sessions at the water cooler grow longer, as the hired hands brag about the vacation they've just come from, or the one they're going on. They steal an extra 15 minutes at lunch for a little walk in the sun, and the boss doesn't say a word. He can't, since he plans to leave an hour early himself.

The whip of tension that people

Mother Dies After Seeing Daughter

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (U)—Mrs. Theresa Knebel saw her daughter for the first time in 42 years yesterday, and died of a heart attack a few hours later.

The 70-year-old woman and her husband John embraced their daughter Anna Regac, just arrived from Yugoslavia with her husband Leopold.

They began discussing plans for a celebration. Seven hours later, Mrs. Knebel collapsed and died.

usually live under here has been put upon the shelf.

The ambitious rest a bit on their oars. The back-biters are at rest. Few want to pick up that first stone and throw it. Too much trouble.

Even the pickpockets take it easy here now. Most of the people with big wallets are out of town. So are the big showoffs and fakers, the cafe society leaders and their toadies, and the gangsters.

Now is the time for all good people to come to Manhattan if they want to see and enjoy it at its friendliest—in the good old summertime, when every night is like Saturday night back home.

Red Deputy Premier Pays Surprise Visit To Bulgaria on Tour

VIENNA, Austria (U)—Sofia radio said Soviet Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan had left for an unannounced destination today after a surprise visit to Bulgaria.

Mikoyan went to Sofia from the island of Brioni, where he paid a private visit to Yugoslavia's President Tito. Earlier he was in Budapest, where he was reported to have been involved in the ouster of Matyas Rakosi, an old Tito foe, as boss of the Hungarian Communist party.

There was speculation here that Mikoyan's next stop would be Romania. He apparently is making the same kind of barnstorming, trouble-shooting tour of the satellites as Soviet Premier Bulganin is making in Poland.

Japanese Mother Dies Of Leukemia After Caesarian Birth

NAGASAKI, Japan (U)—Doctors at Nagasaki University Hospital said an autopsy confirmed today that leukemia caused the death of a mother whose baby was delivered by Caesarian operation five minutes after she died.

Dr. H. Mitani said, however, the autopsy did not itself show whether the mother's leukemia resulted from the 1945 atomic bombing of Hiroshima. Hospital records showed she suffered severe atomic radiation in the blast, he said. Mitani said the four-pound baby girl is healthy.

During the illness of Mrs. Shoko Hasegawa, 29, some attending physicians had said atomic radiation caused her leukemia.

Nations Offer Credit To Indonesia Plan

WASHINGTON (U)—Fifty of the nation's largest post offices will begin using stamp cancellation dies carrying the slogan "Pray for peace" on Aug. 1. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield announced today.

Experts say a good wooden fence post will outlast a steel one.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Confused "Sir"—uation

Been meaning all week to tell you about Curley Lawson's "baby-sitting" experience.

His Mrs. left him in charge, about seven p.m., with instructions not to let the children come downstairs. So Curley read his paper and whenever he heard footsteps on the staircase he ordered the culprit back to bed. Happened three or four times.

Little while later, Mrs. Miller from next door came over to inquire if Curley had seen her Sonny. "Here I am, Mom" came a voice from upstairs, "But Mr.

Lawson won't let me go home." From where I sit, jumping to conclusions like Curley did, doesn't always make for an amusing story. I'm reminded of the people who—without due consideration—have concluded that I'm wrong to like an occasional glass of beer. Well, to my way of thinking, that's not only intolerant... but, what's more, "minding" the other fellow's business is not the American way.

St. Louis Cracks Down On Backyard Bonanzas
ST. LOUIS (AP) — The city has cracked down on a backyard bonanza by ordering 26 parking lots around Busch Stadium closed.

Director of Public Safety Joseph P. Seistrick said last night the lots are on property which isn't zoned for parking.

The baseball-season-only lots had existed and paid their owners well for many years but recently other residents of the area complained to the city.

Seistrick sent out his inspectors and they returned with this box score:

There are 69 parking lots around the park. Only nine had municipal permits. Thirty-four more were eligible for permits and have obtained them.

The other 26, holding from four to 35 cars, were struck out by the zoning law.

LEAGUERS

In the American League race in the Little League, the Optimist players continued their winning ways Tuesday night by beating the Adco nine by the score of 11-1. Lonnie Schott, who won his eighth consecutive game, pitched a four-hitter for Optimist. His battery mate, Jack Kenney, hit a home run for the winners. Chuck Griggs allowed 11 hits for the Adco team and was credited with the loss.

A thrilling slugfest kept the fans on the edge of their seats in the second game of the evening. The Ice & Cold Storage team took this game 15-14 after the game saw-sawed back and forth in the later innings with the Ice's opponents, the Lions, having one of their best offensive nights of the season. Each team used three pitchers.

The Ice team started off with Gary Wahrenbrock, who was followed by Bobby Randall and Enos Johnson. The Lions pitched Donnie Wolfe, Tommy Mitchell, and Tommy Robb. Randall was credited with the win but needed help from Johnson who was called in to pitch the third out in the final inning after the Lions put two men on base. Robb was the loser.

The Lions collected 11 hits, while the Ice team got 15 safeties. Glen Whitney, Ice & Cold Storage catcher, continued to be one of the leading sluggers in both leagues and pounded out two triples and one double out of four trips to the plate. Several of the Lions had two hits apiece.

City Police Become Prisoners in Own Jail
"Let me out of here," called a city prisoner to officers as they walked around the cell block of the city jail Saturday night.

"Let you out? We want out ourselves," one officer called back as they went to the door of the jail to find themselves prisoners.

The officers had gone to the back of the jail to lock up a prisoner and were having a little difficulty in getting the lock to snap. Other officers had obtained the jail door key from them to lock up several other prisoners.

Finished putting their prisoners in the cells, they thought the other officers had already left and walked out to lock up the jail. A few minutes later the officers were summoned back to the jail to get the two imprisoned officers out of the cell block.

The two officers withstood considerable kidding by the other officers as well as the prisoners.

Town & Country Girls Have Weekend Victory
Saturday night the Town and Country Girls defeated the Fort Leonard Wood team by a score of 7 to 2. Earleen Walz was the winning pitcher for Sedalia.

Sunday night they went on to defeat Kansas City 16-8 with Dorothy Herndon being the leading batter with a home run in the fifth inning. Earleen Walz was again the winning pitcher.

Sedalia Welcomes Foreign Students

If a certain bus keeps its time schedule, 44 New Zealand and Japanese students will arrive in Sedalia Wednesday afternoon and become guests of the American Association of University Women. After ice cream, a dinner, movies and swimming they will be off again on the final leg of a trip to the west coast before returning to their home land.

Sedalia is very happy to have these students make this community one of their major stops and be entertained by such an active group as the University women here. A cordial, homelike welcome for our visitors to the prairie lands of Central Missouri.

These foreign students were guests for a year in private homes while they attended American schools — a project of the American Field Service Exchange. Judith Blythin, who endeared herself to so many Smith-Cotton High School students, and adults was an exchange student from England. She was a guest of the Phil McLaughlins. This fall Kristian Kolberg from Norway will be a guest in the R. C. Hemphill home while attending Smith-Cotton as another exchange student under local AAUW sponsorship.

Sedalians are becoming more intimate with this worthwhile program which makes more hearty the welcome of the 44 students here today. In 1948, 17 students from four countries came to the United States under sponsorship of the American Field Service. This year there have been 653 from 25 countries, which gives some idea of the growth of the program. Of that number this year only six were in Missouri. Sedalia had one—Miss Blythin. Next year there will be over 800 in this country including young Kolberg who comes here. The money for Judith and Kristian has been given by adult and student organizations and by individuals. The entire community has been most enthusiastic and has welcomed the opportunity to show Sedalia hospitality to these students.

As Mrs. Thelma Cook, president of the local chapter of AAUW so aptly expresses it: "These students will certainly go back to their homes with a sound knowledge of what life in a normal, mid-western small city is like."

Therefore, it is obvious that commendation is the word for the American Field Service, the American Association of University Women and the citizens of Sedalia for their cooperation in this program of mutual understanding among the teenagers of many foreign countries. While the AAUW sponsors this activity, Sedalians themselves cooperate and contribute to its worthy objectives.

A reflection of Sedalia's sincerity in supporting this meritorious project is seen in the genuine welcome accorded the New Zealand and Japanese students. May their journey home be pleasant and productive of the good will the United States wishes to establish in the world of today and tomorrow.

And may the experience of these young students of foreign lands, and those of our own country who go abroad on a like mission, encourage added emphasis to the need for perpetuating this activity of the American Field Service and American Association of University Women.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—

Sneak Bills In Closing Days Of Congress

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — The House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States was creaking slowly to a close. It had been a long day. The four-year old son of Congressman Francis Dorn of Brooklyn squirmed and fidgeted. He had been sitting beside his father, as an education in government, all week; and he had been remarkably good. But it was 6:30 p. m. and small boys get hungry. . . . Two seats in front, Congressman Cecil Harden of Indiana, who has three grandchildren, looked as if she could have taken care of him, but she sat engrossed in official papers. . . . In the speaker's chair, Sam Rayburn, bald, placid, patient, looked out over the chamber. He had been a member of that chamber for 42 years, had sat for 12 years as speaker, riding herd on his hectic sessions, watching bill after bill argued, wrangled over, voted on, defeated or passed, to become, for better or for worse, the law of the United States. . . . Thus the laws are made, thus the people of the United States are governed.

Alaska Hospital
Speaker Rayburn squinted from the rostrum at the machinery of democracy in motion. It was in slow motion. None of the lightning repartee and fireworks that featured debate on civil rights. . . . The momentous question of Alaska's right to build its own hospital for the insane was being debated. Congressman Leo O'Brien spoke for this right. O'Brien comes from Albany, N. Y., and is a Democrat. Yet he understood Alaskan problems thoroughly. He also spoke for the Eisenhower administration.

At the leader's table on the Democratic side, sat Bob Bartlett, delegate of Alaska, with no right to vote, but the right to speak. Beside him sat Edith Green, of Portland, Oregon. She had pioneered the hospital. . . . Over on the Republican side, "Doc" Miller of Nebraska, walked about, supporting himself with a stick, asking questions. He opposed the hospital. So did other Republicans — Hosmer of California, Gross of Iowa. . . . Dawson of Utah, Republican, didn't. "Those of us who supported this bill have been labeled traitors and communists," he said. "but we think the mentally ill of Alaska have a right to be cared for in Alaska, near their homes, not shipped 2,000 miles away from home." . . . Martin Dies of Texas stopped chewing a cigar to ask helpful questions. . . . The debate droned on, the machinery of democracy at work, giving minute attention to a problem far from Washington affecting only a few hundred. . . . The bill passed.

Sneaky Democracy

The machinery of democracy is not always so careful. It can be rambunctious. It can go on selfish, cruel rampages. It can also be sneaky.

Guest Editorial—

VANCOUVER HERALD: Mayhem On TV. Commisjoner Wycliffe Booth of the Salvation Army has been making his own casualty list of the mayhem on TV screens, and counted 30 deaths, all of them more or less horrible, in the course of four hours' monitoring of the screen of violence.

This is about the average wastage of TV talent and the assumption must be that very few TV actors and actresses last out their assignments in full possession of their health and strength. The mortality rate, indeed, makes it clear that the first qualification of the actor must be his ability to expire realistically and often.

The commissioner's horror at the bloodbath is of course a serious commentary on the role that TV plays in the home and in the on-sensitive minds of young listeners. The rule of writing for TV is that assassination, sudden death, and the last gasp are inescapable requirements.

Dramatists of the most popular home "entertainment" are men not with ink in their veins but with blood in their halpkins.

Why Did Stassen Attempt to Nix Nixon?

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Harold E. Stassen, who lives here in the last house on a dead-end street, doesn't know today whether that will also be the permanent address of his political future. This must be one of his loneliest days.

Not a single Republican leader has stepped up to back his proposal that Vice President Nixon be brushed aside in favor of Gov. Christian A. Herter as President Eisenhower's running mate.

The White House, where he has his office as special assistant to Eisenhower on disarmament, made it clear Stassen is not getting any support there. Republicans in Congress have called on him to resign his job.

And even Herter, after a telephone talk with the vice president, not only did not support Stassen but said he would nominate Nixon. Herter did, however, say he would accept the vice presidential nomination if Eisenhower wanted him.

The professional Republican pol-

Looking Backward . . .

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Jubilee Sales Day in Sedalia Thursday, July 23, ended with various entertaining events, including a baseball game at Liberty Park, band concert and an exceptionally spectacular display of fireworks in charge of the Sedalia Flambeau Club. It was estimated ten thousand were attracted to the various event.

1931
Mrs. Major Kidd, Norman, Okla., was here for a visit with her father, N. H. Gentry, and Mrs. Gentry, Route 1, and other relatives.

1931
The largest crowd of the baseball season saw the Sedalia Athletics win in a fast ball game 6 to 2 over the Forsens of Kansas City. The attendance was about 2,000.

1931
Matt McEniry, Philadelphia, Pa., was here for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McEniry, 1000 West Fourth.

FORTY YEARS AGO
Members of Sedalia Machine Gun Co., captained by W. F. Logan and Harry L. Collins, first lieutenant, were mustered into service by Maj. Charles Miller, U. S. Army post, Leavenworth, Kan., Saturday night, July 22, and departed for Camp Clark, Nevada, for brief training and then were to go to Laredo, Tex., at the Mexican border.

1916
After a vacation visit here with relatives Frank Zol, former Sedalia, left for Gallatin, Mo. where he was secretary of the YMCA.

1916
Fred S. Barde, a former Sedalia newspaper man, died Saturday July 22 at Guthrie, Okla. where for a period of several years he was Oklahoma correspondent for the Kansas City Star.

1916
Mrs. Kate Hawkins, son, Harry Hawkins and Mrs. L. L. Igenfritz left for a trip to the Pacific coast and after a brief stay there were to continue a trip to Alaska.

Twins — Two Birthdays
HAMILTON, Mont. — The twins of Mr. and Mrs. David Huls will have different birthdays although they were born only 32 minutes apart. The boy weighed in at 7 pounds, 12 ounces at 11:55 p.m. His sister came along 32 minutes later and 7 ounces lighter. The Huls, who farm near Corvallis, Mont., have three other children.

iticians, who thought they had the way greased to present the voters this year with the same 1952 winning combination of Eisenhower and Nixon, have reason to be sore at Stassen.

He not only caused them trouble, if only temporarily, but also called sensational attention to the fact that not everyone wants Nixon. It's possible the fire Stassen tried to start may have spread by convention time. It doesn't look like it now.

Not even one member of that unnamed group of "Republican leaders" who, Stassen said, shared his views, has come out in public to stand beside him. Politicians pay a penalty for causing their party trouble.

Stassen may have to pay the penalty of being forced into political limbo from now on. Which raises a question: Why did he do it? He said he did it for the good of the country and out of "loyalty" to Eisenhower.

If this was Stassen's only reason—since he's been around long enough to know a bad reaction might ruin him—then it took sheer guts and unselfishness to do what he did.

But the 49-year-old Stassen, who never seems to stop talking and has been giving Republicans and Democrats alike advice from the sidelines for years, has been an immensely ambitious man.

He's had his eyes steadily on the presidency since he was in his 30s. He was a candidate for the Republican nomination in 1944, 1948 and 1952. And as late as July 9 he made it known he would like to be a candidate this year if Eisenhower didn't run.

Ruth Millett Says—

Curtailed Driving Rights Provide Good Discipline

Many parents have the old-fashioned but still sensible notion that you don't let go of all authority over children the moment they turn into teen-agers. And they have found that the most satisfactory method of controlling them is through their driving.

In such families Junior, too old to be spanked, sent to his room or told to stay in his own yard, can still be disciplined by taking his driving privilege away from him for a week or a month.

It works like a charm. The teen-ager of today finds that having the keys to the family car or his own battered jalopy withheld is indeed a fate worse than death.

It turns him in an instant from a big shot who can go where he pleases, when he pleases to a kid who is no longer his own boss.

Judging from the reaction he has received so far, his attempt to cut Nixon's political throat was not shrewd. Perhaps he had assurance of support from Republicans who got cold feet when the reaction set in.

At the moment he looks like a politician who stuck his neck out once too often and had it cut off. And yet, if Stassen's presidential hopes for the future were involved in his action, then what he did was logical enough.

If now the Republican ticket is Eisenhower and Nixon, and it loses, Stassen will have some claim on party leadership through his foresight in saying Nixon's candidacy would hinder Eisenhower—even though Stassen isn't predicting defeat of an Eisenhower-Nixon ticket.

If Nixon were re-elected and served out four years, he would be the party's most likely candidate for the presidency in 1960. Stassen then would hardly seem to have a look-in. He's no political pal of Nixon.

If Nixon were re-elected and succeeded to the presidency through the death of Eisenhower, he'd almost certainly be the party candidate in 1960. Stassen would seem to have no chance at all then.

Stassen's best hope for his own presidential ambitions would seem to lie in the elimination of Nixon now. If not now, then perhaps never.

Yet, in spite of the cold shoulder he has received inside his own party from the professionals, there are probably many independent and Republican anti-Nixon voters who feel grateful to Stassen for trying to get Nixon nixed.

As Sedalia Sees It—

Can't Clear Censorship On Revolutionary War Data

By Joseph A. Dear
Of Our Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON — The Government Operations subcommittee which is investigating secrecy in the Executive departments has inadvertently focused attention on the highly classified Congressional secret of how much junkies cost and who takes them.

Congress can thank Rep. Clare Hoffman (R-Mich.) for this unexpected twist. He asked Robert Ross, Assistant Secretary of Defense for Legislative and Public Affairs, why his request for information on congressional junketing had been ignored. Ross said the Pentagon had told two Congressional Committees just how much it cost the military to provide transportation for globe trotting lawmakers.

Rep. John Moss (D-Cal.) cut in right there. He didn't think this was the subject the subcommittee had been assigned for investigation. Since he is the chairman, that seemed to be that. So the members turned their attention to the efforts of the military to enhance national security through a policy of constructive suppression and censorship.

Here is a sample, from the files of the subcommittee:

Navy Captain George Campbell, early in 1955, submitted to the Saturday Evening Post an article on the last voyage of the cruiser Indianapolis. The Indianapolis was sunk in the Pacific during the closing days of World War II.

Captain J. D. Lamade, Navy Deputy Chief of Information, told the magazine security wasn't involved, but that the article was objectionable inasmuch as a retelling of the story might have an adverse effect on reenlistments. The Post then submitted the article to the Information Office of the Secretary of Defense, where it was cleared for publication.

After Campbell's story had appeared, he received a letter from Vice Admiral J. L. Holloway. The Admiral informed Campbell that a letter of censure was under consideration. Could Campbell offer any reason why he shouldn't be censured for writing the article, Holloway asked?

Another example: Lt. Col. Robert B. Rigg, a former intelligence officer now attached to Army Chief of Staff, wished to publish a general history of the Army intelligence service. He was refused permission, though his book would not have included any classified information.

Colonel Rigg then asked if he could publish his book if he accepted World War II as the cut-off date for his history. The answer was no. He proposed, successively, World War I, the Spanish American War, and finally the Revolutionary War, as cut off dates. The answer was no, in each instance.

Presumably the basis of the refusal was that the enemy might gain some insight into current techniques through reading a commentary on George Washington's G-2 prepared by an officer familiar with intelligence operations of today.

Much of the trouble now stems

Observe Hospital Day In Sweet Springs

Hospital Day was observed in Sweet Springs July 14. The hospital plan was laid out on the exact spot of each room at the hospital site at Bridge and Ray Streets for the people to see. Free entertainment was provided during the evening and refreshments provided.

Later in the evening a street dance was held on Lexington St. with music by Billy Cox and his Covered Wagon Boys and Charles and Reid string band. The Hix and Chix square dance team from Moberly, was a featured attraction. The campaign for a community hospital is well underway with the amount donated now over $45,000.

from an order issued by Defense Secretary Charles Wilson. It provided that release of information was to be governed not only by security considerations, but also by judging whether publication would constitute a "constructive contribution" to national defense. The judging, of course, was to be undertaken by government officials.

Assistant Secretary Ross, told Moss (D-Cal.) that the "constructive contribution" order was intended to apply only within the Pentagon. The implication was that this restriction would not have effect if a reporter asked for specific facts; only if a service itself proposed the release of facts in the absence of a request.

That is not the construction put upon the order by Secretary Wilson himself as the record shows. Question (to the Secretary): "even though no violation of security is involved in some query it might be turned down simply because you didn't regard it as constructive?" Answer (by Wilson): "That is possible."

During his appearance before the Moss subcommittee, Ross did say the Pentagon was getting up a panel to review procedures for declassification of historical documents. The idea is to speed up their release. That's a hopeful sign. Dr. R. A. Winnacker, Defense Department expert on historical documents, estimates there are 100,000 drawers, full of militarily classified documents relating to World War II alone.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

The car radio furnishes a lit as we drive the long miles along the highways of our summer vacation. Sometimes we almost forget that the music is playing because it seems to fit into the landscape as we pass hills, valleys, towns, and countryside.

When we come to an underpass or go through a tunnel the radio goes dead. No sound comes forth. As we parallel a power line or pass beneath unnoticed wires, we are aware of interference. We may try to adjust the tuning, but there is no adjustment for these interruptions of otherwise fine reception.

Prayer has frequently been described as being "tuned in with God." The person who has enjoyed the satisfaction of prayer and communications with the Supreme Being comes to the point that he wants to be "tuned in" all the time. He does not limit his prayers to a few short minutes before retiring or a few seconds before his meals.

Those who try to pray constantly and even those who pray occasionally find that there are periods of interference. Every now and then pathways through the day's occupation take us through tunnels which cut us off from God.

Many times we parallel the worldly lines of spiritual interference, and we cannot hear God speaking clearly. This does not indicate that God is not broadcasting. It is rather that we have come close to worldly interference which could make our prayers ineffective if we did not move to the open way where God's voice is clear and understandable.

Youngsters Enjoy Bottles Dressed Up at Their Party

PARTY TABLE GLAMOR — Clown and cat toppers crown bottles of chocolate or fruit-flavored milk for the party fare.

AP Newsfeatures
Tiny tots adore a birthday party from parlor games to birthday cake.

There are more parties in summer, so how can little Mary's be different from those of the other youngsters?

One new idea involves the trusty old milk bottle, or several of them. A clown of crepe paper is made to go on top of each bottle to delight youngsters who drink chocolate milk or milk made with crushed strawberries, strawberry syrup or other fruit. Each child may then choose the milk of his choice. Here is how to make the clown bottle topper:

Stretch a piece of white crepe paper over a small rubber ball, tie excess crepe paper at the bottom of the ball for the neck. Stick on gummed stars for eyes, a little disc for the nose and half a circle for the mouth. A red cone of paper is the hat.

Gather a strip, 3 by 18 inches, of bright yellow crepe paper by a needle and thread, lengthwise, thru the center and tie under the clown's chin. Make a slip-on jacket for the bottle top from circus red crepe paper 4 inches by 10 inches. Paste the seam at back, gather together around top and sew or paste clown's head and ruffle to it. Cut several pieces of bright yellow crepe paper 1½ by 9 inches, gathering it tightly through the center into pompons.

These will trim the hat, feet and mitts of the clown. Cut large mitts and big flat feet from heavy white paper and tape it to the bottle. Add big blue lawyer's seals for buttons.

Another idea that may be made quickly with a balloon is a cat top for the milk bottle. All you do to create "Felix" is take an ordinary round balloon and add ears and features after it is blown to desired size.

a tail, wrap them with a 2-inch length of bright blue crepe paper that has been cut into coarse fringe and tape the tail to the back of the bottle. Fringe two more 3-inch strips of blue crepe paper, gather it along the uncut edge with a needle and thread and draw it into pom-poms. Tape it to front of the bottle for paws. The cat's fluffy neck ruff may be made of two strips of blue and yellow crepe paper gathered into tiny ruffles and placed around the bottle.

Flameproof crepe paper may be used for all decorations and is recommended also for a spill-proof decorative table cover. Use a plastic tablecloth or old bed sheet as an underpad, then place red and yellow crepe paper runner fashion across the table. The hanging ends may be cut into deep scallops for circus tent effect if desired.

Team Match Feature Event On Mat Card

TONIGHT'S WRESTLING CARD

At Liberty Park—8:15
Heavyweight Tag Team Match
Wild Red Berry, 215, Pittsburg, Kan., and Joe Dusek, 233, Omaha, Neb., vs. Bob Orton, 240, Kansas City, Kan., and Al Szasz, 230, Lake Worth, Fla. Best two out of three falls, or a 60-minute time limit.

Girls' Feature
Ada Ash, 142, Lake Worth, Fla., vs. Ann Miller, 134, Cleveland, Ohio. Best two out of three falls, or a 45-minute time limit.

Opening Match
All Szasz vs. Joe Dusek. One fall, or a 30-minute time limit.

Extra Attraction
Ada Ash will attempt to throw Ali I, a 200-pound alligator. (No time limit for this exhibition.)
Matches sponsored by Pettis American Legion Post.

Regional tag team wrestling supremacy will be settled tonight at the Liberty Baseball Park when Joe Dusek and colorful Wild Red Berry pair together to oppose Bob Orton and Al Szasz in the featured team contest. The matches will get under way at 8:15.

The outdoor program promises to provide a variety of ring entertainment. In addition to the tag team battle, Ada Ash will present her unique and hazardous exhibition of alligator wrestling as an added extra attraction.

Miss Ash, wife of Szasz, will actually be in a dual role tonight. She will first compete against Cleveland's Ann Miller in the girls' feature matching which takes the semi-windup spot. Then following the completion of the tag contest, Miss Ash will return to the ring for her attempt at throwing a live, 200-pound, 8-foot alligator named Ali I.

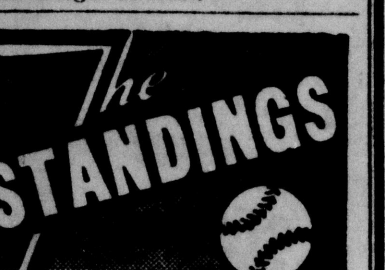

Ada will have no giggling equipment in the ring during her skirmish with the gator. She will wrestle the monster with her bare hands relying on her agility and good timing to elude the massive jaws of the everglade denizen. Her objective will be to throw the alligator on its back, which is considered a "fall" in this type of exhibition. Ada is the first woman athlete to successfully master the art of tossing gators. But it's a mighty risky business.

The team feature brings together the two top aggregations now in the Middle West's mat circles. Both combinations appear to be evenly matched. Dusek and Berry are rough-housing exponents, while Szasz and Orton operate more along orthodox wrestling lines with speed and fancy footwork as their greatest assets.

Szasz was a former strong man and competitor in physical culture demonstrations. His exceptional strength whereby he utilizes many pressure grips has come in handy in the mat sport. Many matchmakers consider Szasz to be in the same class as the Mighty Atlas.

Berry is one of madom's most colorful personalities. His unpredictable ring antics always can be counted on to provide the ring-siders with a full measure of fast-paced action. Red claims to have appeared in more nationally televised matches originated out of Hollywood's famous Legion Stadium.

The two team captains—Szasz and Dusek—will clash on an individual basis in the opener. The Liberty park gates and box office will open tonight at 7:15.

Once 'Over the Hill'—

Warren Spahn Falls Short Of 200 Game Winner in NL

By ED WILKS

The Associated Press
Warren Spahn, the southpaw veteran tabbed "over the hill" by some folks a year ago, now is within seven victories of becoming the National League's first 200-game winner in a decade. And if the Milwaukee Braves can keep up the part of a pennant winner, it may be a breeze for their one-time ace.

Milwaukee's championship machine continued to hum last night as the Braves came from behind after being held hitless for five innings to nail the New York Giants 4-3 with a two-run ninth. Spahn, 35, went all the way, homering for Milwaukee's first hit in the sixth.

Johnny Logan's two-out homer broke it up in the ninth and provided the only "fireworks" between the Braves and Ruben Gomez, the running right hander, who had fled from Joe Adcock in their hit-and-run affair in Milwaukee a week ago.

Brooklyn's third-place world champs battered the runner-up Cincinnati Redlegs 10-5 as Sandy Amoroso drove in five runs with two triples and Duke Snider batted home three with his 22nd and 23rd home runs.

Philadelphia took over sixth place from Chicago, defeating St. Louis 7-3 while the Cubs were losing to Pittsburgh 6-3.

In the American League, the New York Yankees' lead "dwindled" to 8 1/2 games as the Chicago White Sox beat the Bombers 11-5 while the second-place Cleveland Indians coasted past Washington 11-0. Boston defeated Kansas City 3-2, on Mickey Vernon's ninth-inning home run. Detroit and Baltimore split a two-night game, the Tigers winning 9-7, then losing 11-5.

The Giants, who have lost six straight and 15 of 18, got a two-run homer from Dusty Rhodes in the first, and back-to-back doubles by Don Mueller and Red Schoendienst for their 3-0 lead.

Gomez had a four-hitter going into the ninth, when Hank Aaron opened with a triple and scored on a double play after a walk to Joe Adcock. That tied it and set up Logan's winning shot. Aaron, who reclaimed the NL bat lead with a .338 average, also singled and scored in the seventh.

Gomez, now 5-10, had no trouble runs of the inning with a double. The Cardinals outlived the winners, 12-7, but couldn't deliver with men on base.

with Adcock, whom he hit with a pitch in Milwaukee. In his first appearance since the end of a three-day suspension, Ruben re-tired the heavy-hitting first baseman on a ground ball, a called third strike and a foul pop before losing him in the ninth.

Amoros, who also doubled, broke up a 3-all tie with a bases-loaded triple in the sixth for the Brooks, who then added four in the seventh for a happy return to chummy Ebbets Field. Snider had accounted for their first three runs with his homers off loser Johnny Klippstein. Sal Maglie won it.

Curt Simmons, his sore arm trouble apparently a thing of the past, evened his record at 6-6 with a third victory over the Cardinals. The lefty also doubled home two runs as the Phils broke a 1-all tie in the sixth by getting to Wilmer Mizell for six runs on four hits, a walk and hit batsmen.

Roberto Clemente batted in four runs for the Pirates with a triple, home run and sacrifice fly as Ron Kline won his ninth with relief help. Bob Rush lost it.

Billy Pierce won his 15th to become the majors' winningest pitcher, handing the Yankees their fifth straight defeat at Comiskey Park.

Doby and Minnie Minoos each homered for the Chisox, driving in six runs between them. Gil McDougald, Bill Skowron and Bob Cerv homered for New York.

Mike Garcia three-hit Washington while the Indians ran wild with seven runs on three hits and five walks in the eighth inning. Vernon's homer followed a walk to Ted Williams, the only pass given up by rookie Wally Burnette who had three-hit Boston after allowing a first-inning run. Ike Delock won it in relief.

The Tigers and Orioles traded three home runs apiece in the opener with Charley Maxwell's two-run shot icing it in the sixth for reliever Steve Gromek. The Birds came back with five runs in the first inning of the nightcap against a wild Bob Miller with the help of Willie Miranda's bases-loaded triple.

Consistency is the word of the Owosso, Mich., bowling team composed of Frieda Zonge, Margaret Mallory, Kathleen Snyder and Valerie Gale. Each totalled 324 pins during a three-game series.

BR All-Stars Will Play '55 All-Star Team

Saturday night the Babe Ruth League All-Stars of 1955 come back to meet the All-Stars of 1956 in a game to be played at the Liberty Park ball diamond. The alumni may not be complete, but there will be enough boys on hand to play ball and will be supplemented if necessary.

However, Sedalia baseball fans can anticipate some real action when these teams cross bats. It will be interesting to see if the Alumni from Babe Ruth will be able to keep up with these youngsters of '56.

Bob Austin, and his assistant, Gene Shepherd are getting ready for their last season's cream of the crop to meet the team which is being managed this season by Wally McGowan and his assistant Lee Dow.

Babe Ruth sponsors, league officials and fans are looking forward to this game almost as much as they are to the State Tournament which opens on Friday, Aug. 3. They are hoping for a large crowd to help swell the financial department of the league.

All Babe Ruth players and all of the Little League players will be guests at this game. A big turn out of these younger players is anticipated, as well as a large turn out of baseball fans.

Wayne Winston Wins Horseshoe Tournament

Wayne Winston, LaMonte, displayed his powers in the horseshoe pitching sport the past weekend when he took the tournament played at Washington Park. It was a ten-man tournament and Winston went undefeated.

The tournament play is held each Sunday with definite winners for each Sunday's tournament. The standing of the other players were as follows: Bud Larson, Sedalia, second; E. Weicken, Versailles, third; Raymond Morris, LaMonte, fourth; Mickey McNeal, Sedalia, fifth; Raymond Coffman, Sedalia, sixth; W. Petering, Sweet Springs, seventh; K. Beeson, Ionia, eighth; L. Smethers, Sedalia, ninth; and J. Bruehl, Sedalia, tenth. All horseshoe pitchers in the area are invited to attend the tournaments. The next will be Sunday afternoon starting at 2 o'clock.

Durocher Rejects High Bids to Return Under Managership of Clubs

NEW YORK (AP)—Leo Durocher has rejected managerial offers from two National League clubs and has had a feeler from a third club.

The former manager of the New York Giants declined last night to say whether the feeler came from the Cleveland Indians, who reportedly offered him a five-year contract at $100,000 a year. He refused point blank to identify the two National League clubs.

"I'll tell you this, though," he said in reference to the direct offers, "neither of them was from Milwaukee."

"They were both wonderful offers," Leo said. "I was told to name my own figure but they didn't even tempt me."

"I'm through with baseball. I've got the greatest job in the world. I'm happy as never before. I'm with my family, I do what I please, I go where I want and I have no worries at all. I'm making more money than I ever made in baseball. But the main thing is that I'm happy in what I'm doing."

Durocher was in New York on business in his capacity as an executive with the National Broadcasting Company.

Ramon Fuentes Wins

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ramon Fuentes, Los Angeles, spoiled the local ring debut of Chico Vejar, Stamford, Conn., winning a split decision last night in a rugged, bloody 10-rounder at the Olympic auditorium. Fuentes weighed 154 1/2 and Vejar 154 1/2.

Championship Trophy on Display— Prepare for State Babe Ruth Baseball Tourney Here Aug. 5

The beautiful State Championship trophy to be awarded the winner of the Missouri Babe Ruth Tournament on Sunday, Aug. 5, has been placed in the window of the Missouri Public Service Co. The trophy is sponsored by Colca Cola and bottlers.

Billy Martin Gets Spiked In Ball Game

CHICAGO (AP)—Billy Martin, New York Yankee second baseman who was spiked in last night's game against the Chicago White Sox, said, "It's nothing, but let's hope they can take it too."

Martin received a gash in his right leg from Sox outfielder Larry Doby, who broke up a double play in the third inning of a roughhouse game the Sox won 11-5.

It wasn't the first nor the only incident that nearly brought on a players' brawl in the game.

It all started when Yankee outfielder Bob Cerv, a 215-pounder, bolted into Chicago's diminutive second baseman Nellie Fox to break up a double play in the second inning.

And it ended when Umpire Ed Hurley warned Yankee pitcher Tom Sturdivant about throwing beanballs. Sturdivant sent Doby to the ground the first time the Sox outfielder batted after Martin had been spiked.

"They started it," said Sox Manager Marty Marion, "and if that's the way they want to play, we can do it too. I thought Doby did an excellent job."

There are eight teams entered in the play, seven cities being represented and one city having two teams by virtue of having two Babe Ruth Leagues active in its sport program. The towns to be represented are Joplin, Lebanon, Lamar, Carthage, Clinton, Cape Girardeau with two teams, and Sedalia, the host team.

On Friday, the opening day, there will be four games, two in the afternoon and two that night. The afternoon session starts at 1:30 with the second game at 3 p.m. The night games start at 6:30 with the second at 9 p.m.

Saturday's schedule calls for two games, the first at 6:30 p.m. and second at 9 p.m.

The championship is being run on the "sudden death" plan. One loss and the team is eliminated.

Webb City, which started Babe Ruth this year, was late in getting registered and hence is not eligible to enter this year's tournament. The registration had to be in by June 15. Clinton, which began Babe Ruth last year had similar trouble in 1955 and this is its first year in the State All-Star play-offs.

Soap Opera Enters 24th Year on CBS

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—A few bars of "Juanita" sounded from a few million radios across the country yesterday and a soap opera called The Romance of Helen Trent entered its 24th uninterrupted year of broadcasting on the CBS radio network.

As far as anybody can find out (and just watch a couple of authorities from somewhere arise to dispute the flat statement) The Romance of Helen Trent is now the oldest consecutive soap opera on the air. Its 5,900 scripts, if laid end to end, would consume 61 solid days and nights of heart-throb.

Helen has survived by a simple, neat formula that has endeared her to millions of women as they slave over their ironing boards and cookstoves. She demonstrates—in fact, she proves—that a woman of 35 or older may still have romance in her life.

Granted that Helen, a successful Hollywood dress designer, may have been 35 when her perpetual and persistent romances began back in 1932, she now is a mere 63—a real spring chicken. One thing about Helen is that she's a mighty good girl, with none of the major or minor vices. She has been courted only by wealthy men—it's doubtful if anyone knows by how many. Yet not once has she been led to the altar.

There was a time, when she was younger, when it was unthinkable that any of these brush or subtle males might kiss her or hold her hand. As she's grown older, however, she has changed with the conventions of the times. She reportedly has been kissed—but married never.

Her constant involvement in romance but her careful avoidance of the state of holy matrimony apparently has not discouraged her listeners. They have their favorite suitors, of course. One actor who played a suitor's role some time ago says he used to receive constant communications from a listener, a sweet little old lady in Chicago, who was rooting for him. She'd report to him by mail the things that were being said about him behind his back on the program. She urged him to "strike back!"

But when Helen finally rejects, her listeners apparently accept the fact with a fatalism born of the ironing board. Tomorrow there will be somebody else. Tomorrow there will be hope. And there always is Gil Whitney, Helen's most persistent suitor of the past dozen years.

Helen was the brain-child of Frank and Anne Rummert, a husband and wife writing team. Only nine writers have worked on the show in its lifetime. The present writer is Margo Brooks, of South Salem, N. Y. Ernest Ricca has been the director for the past 12 years. There have been occasional substitute stars. But the present Helen, who took the job at the age of 27 and will be 40 in November, is an actress named Julie Stevens who is married to a television executive named Charles Underhill and lives in Armonk, N. Y.

Diana Dors Says She Will Not Stay Here

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The nicest lend-lease I can think of is having the British send us Diana Dors while Marilyn Monroe is in Old Blighty.

The best thing about it is that we'll be seeing a lot more of Diana. What I mean is, she'll be staying here for more than one picture.

Now laboring with George Gobel on "I Married a Woman," she is going to sign a three-year deal for a picture a year with RKO. She'll earn $375,000 for the trio, compared to her $85,000 per film in England. The first will be "The Lady and The Prowler." After that, maybe a comedy with Tom Ewell at 20th Century-Fox.

"But I won't be staying here all the time," she said with a toss of her platinum blonde hair. "Both my husband and I have too many interests in England. We have a lot of property there—you know, flats, houses and coffee bars, as well as our own lovely home 20 miles from London."

She disclosed she was planning to add to her property by buying a home here. She and her husband, Dennis Hamilton, have looked at several properties and have just about settled on the Alice Faye-Phil Harris show place in Encino. It's a large place with stables and everything.

The curvaceous actress admitted she had fallen under the California spell. "The climate is simply wonderful," she enthused.

Her sole objections: The traffic and the food. "The drivers here are even worse than they are in Paris, and I thought they were the worst," she observed. "Especially the women drivers."

As for the food: "My chief objection is the amount that is served on a plate. It is more than you can possibly eat. I think the cooks here would do better to concentrate more on quality than quantity."

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT—Sedalia, Mo., Wed., July 26, 1956 11

Diana came here without knowing anything about her leading man. "Nobody knew who George Gobel was in England," she explained. "His first picture, 'The Birds and The Bees,' was just being released as I left."

Egg Producers Get Newest Refrigerator

By WALTER RUSSELL
MU Extension Poultry Specialist

One of the newest items of poultry equipment used by Missouri egg producers is the refrigerated egg cooler. According to county agent reports, about 200 producers purchased egg coolers last year. Several requests for information on coolers have been received this year so probably a large number of cooling cabinets and refrigerated egg rooms will be installed or built this year.

Research on egg holding rooms at the Missouri College of Agriculture has shown that quality can be maintained in a well insulated cellar or basement, especially if the eggs are marketed twice a week during the summer months. Unfortunately, some producers do not have this type of cooling place available. If this is the case on your farm, then you may want to consider using refrigeration for cooling so that you can market a high percentage of Grade A eggs. Refrigerated coolers also have the advantage of convenience. They may be installed in the laying house where it is easy to cool eggs immediately after gathering and is handy for loading and unloading cases.

One possibility for a cooling room is to use an old commercial incubator. Several of these units are in use in the state and they seem to work satisfactorily. The cooling unit, which costs between $175 and $300 is simply installed in the wall in one end of the incubator. A thermostat is used for controlling the temperature at about 55 degrees Fahrenheit and a relative humidity of about 75 per cent. Incubators are generally insulated with corkboard and do not require additional expense for remodeling.

Several commercial companies have refrigerated egg cabinets on the market. These seem to be most practical for producers with a flock of less than a thousand hens. Cabinets usually come in 6 to 12 case sizes and this does not allow any additional room for cooling eggs in wire baskets. If the smaller size is used, a producer with 500 hens would have to market eggs twice a week in order to have sufficient cooling room. Prices on the cabinets range between $250 and $300.

Some larger producers will prefer a walk-in type of cooler that can be built in the laying house. In planning such a cooler, room should also be allowed for a work area to be used for cleaning and casing eggs. This work area may be located in the hallway between the cooling room and the feed room.

Before buying a cooling unit, it is best to check with the manufacturer on the type and size needed for your particular size room. If the unit is too small, it will be required to run most of the time to maintain a temperature of 55 degrees Fahrenheit which will result in less efficiency and higher operating costs.

Figures from Nebraska and Texas show that the cost of refrigeration runs about one-third cent per dozen where the producer has a flock size of 500 hens or more. This shows it is a paying proposition. Anytime a producer can invest one-third cent and get back 5 to 7 cents, it is, indeed, a good investment.

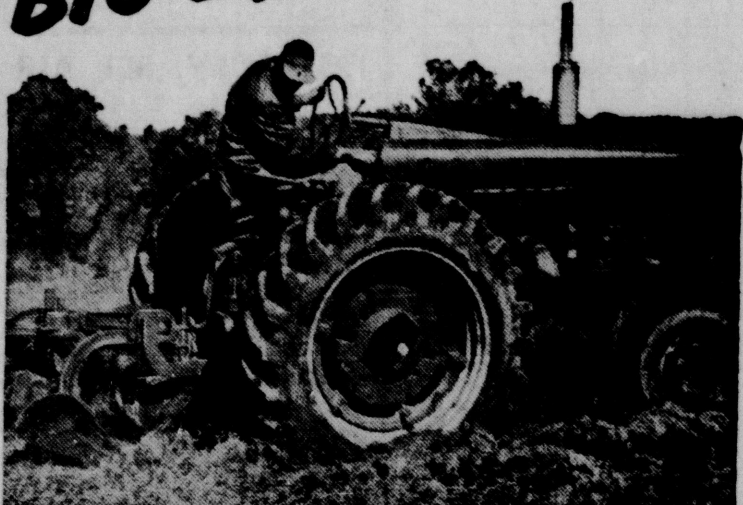

Some producers have inquired about regular air conditioners for egg cooling rooms. These machines are not satisfactory for this purpose because they remove humidity from the air and have difficulty in maintaining a low temperature. It is always best to select a cooling unit designed for cooling eggs. Plans for egg cooling rooms and a partial list of manufacturers are available at your county extension office.

Congress planned George Washington's tomb in the Capitol, but relatives rejected the proposal.
